

One Year Free Membership for Veterans of Iraq War and War in Afghanistan

The East Cocalico Lions Club is offering returning military veterans of the Iraq War (Operation Iraqi Freedom) or the War in Afghanistan (Operation Enduring Freedom) and their spouses and the surviving spouses of deceased veterans in our community a ONE YEAR FREE MEMBERSHIP in East Cocalico Lions Club.

The East Cocalico Lions are constantly on the lookout for quality new members, persons of good moral character and good reputation in his/her community; and who better than our military veterans. We Lions recognize that military veterans have a team-player mindset that fuels selfless contribution, goal oriented focus, and leadership ability that will make them valued members of our Lions Club.

The purpose of this ONE YEAR FREE MEMBERSHIP offer is:

- To recognize the sacrifice and service that military veterans of the Iraq War and the War in Afghanistan, and their spouses and families have given our country.
- To help these veterans assimilate back into civilian life and become involved in their community.
- To attract these veterans to join our Lions Club where they can take advantage of the experience and knowledge that they gained through their military service, and apply it to serve their community and humanity.

We believe that membership in our Lions Club will not only provide these veterans an opportunity to contribute to our community, but also for fellowship and networking during Club meetings and activities.

The duration of the ONE YEAR FREE MEMBERSHIP offer extends from the present to one year after the final withdrawals date at the end the war in Afghanistan.

To be eligible for this offer a person must be of good moral character and good reputation in his/her community, and:

- A Veteran, with an honorable discharge, who served in either the Iraq or Afghanistan War Theaters.
- A spouse of a Veteran who served in either the Iraq or Afghanistan War Theaters.
- A surviving spouse of a deceased Veteran who served in either the Iraq or Afghanistan War Theaters.
- An active duty military service member who served in in either the Iraq or Afghanistan War Theaters.
- A member of the Reserve or National Guard who served in either the Iraq or Afghanistan War Theaters.

Military veterans of the Iraq War and the War in Afghanistan, you have served your country, now are you ready for a new challenge??
