Spring Oyster/Shrimp/Ham Dinner – Did not do very well this year. Bottom line net under $300.

- Lion Tim Hegeman notified Board that he is stepping down from Chairperson for the dinners. He said he would help but he can no longer run it. Club will need to find another Chairperson or run the risk of cancelling the November and future event. Board congratulated Lion Tim Hegeman for all he has done to keep this event running for us.

Golf Tournament –

- Still waiting on T-Sponsorships (this is how we make our money we need everyone’s help)
- Sign up sheet for working Golf Tournament will be at next meeting

LEO Advisory –

- Leo’s toll road is this Saturday from 8 AM -12 PM
- Leo’s officers for next year will be known by next meeting

Student of the Month – Will have S.O.M. on 5/22 will be the last for this year

Student Scholarships –

- Lions Forest Troyer, Barbara Noel, and Bruce Carpenter will present scholarship awards on 5/31.
- Lion Dennis Ensinger will present Leo of the Year Award

Easter Egg Hunt – It was noted that the ECLC website has incorrect information which is where the Ephrata Review got its information they used for the Article the wrote up on our event

Trailer & Fryer Maintenance – Trailers being kept on side of Silo by Gas Tanks where it is easier to get in and out, since there are gates on both side.

Home Healthcare (Medical) Equipment – Lion Tim Hegeman made motion to clean electric lift chair if expenses are under $100, seconded by Lion Dennis Ensinger. Motion carried.

...excerpts & actions of the May 1 BoD meeting:

Rock for Sight

Coming up on May 13th for the Lions, Lionness and Leos we will hold the second Rock for Sight.

This is when you go to Oregon Dairy and rock, listen to music, and donate money to help with sight projects.

For a donation you can get your picture taken in a huge rocking chair.

Come out and help the Lions, Lionness, and Leos of District 14-D to raise money for the visually impaired.

When you finish rocking there is an ice cream shop right next to you!

The Ephrata Middle School Leo Club will be there face painting for donations and we are looking for other Leo artists to join us!
