Finance and Budget –

- Was in touch with Lion Jeff Hartman and Tax Forms are close to being ready for signature. Will be meeting late this week

Care of Members –

- Lion Donald Harcraft is going home by himself
- Lion Mark Janke Mother in Law Passed away (Keep family in Prayers) Will send Sympathy Card
- Lion Charles Cutts had another stent placed but is still short of breath

Program –

- At the May 13 Lions Club Meeting we will have the following presentation by Police Commander Danti Orlandi. Why I Carry a Gun – 33 Years in Law Enforcement Police events are sometimes sensationalized and misrepresented to the public, and media depictions of police officers can be misleading or inaccurate. It is important that communities have a strong bond with their police departments and understand their role in society. In this talk the speaker will explain what it means to be a police officer and why some people decide to wear a uniform and become the protectors of their communities.
- There will be NO meeting on May 27 because of the Memorial Day Holiday excerpts & actions of the May 6 BoD meeting:
