excerpts & actions of the October 8 BoD meeting:

Membership/Orientation/Retention –

- Meeting at Lion Bruce home on 10/21 @ 7PM; items on agenda are discussions on 5 year membership plan and getting new Service Projects for newer and less active members.
- Faithful Living said its members would be happy to wear yellow vests when crossing 272. Lion Leo made motion to give Lion Bruce permission to purchase 10 vests (5 LRG, 5 XLRG) from either LCIF or Teddybears whichever is more reasonable. Seconded by Lion Carol. Motion passed.
- It is with regrets that the Board accepts the resignation of Lion Robin Shepard

Finance and Budget –

- Budget was discussed and Lion Carl made motion to approve with minor changes, seconded by Lion Bruce, motion unanimously accepted

Constitution and Bylaws –

- As of July 2021 LCIF will no longer recognize Lioness Clubs as part of Lions. They will either have to ban or change to Lions Clubs. They can do like Millersville did and become Lioness Lion's Club and nothing else changes.

Care of Members –

- Lion Bill is determined to get out of Rehab and is progressing through therapy
- Lion Charlie is doing OK
- Lion Ron Horning needs prayers as he is still going for treatments for Bladder Cancer
- Lion Ray K. is doing better using a cane/walker. Had Transverse fracture and broken rib(s)

Program –

- Lion Forest Troyer will be taking over Programs for a while for Lion Jamie
- 10/14 jeopardy, 10/28 Zone Chairman Leo, 11/11 possible Lion Charles Cutts on Membership Club

Banquets –

- Christmas Banquet is lined up and will be at Fox Chase with Carl Housman as entertainment

Ephrata Fair –

- Great success brought in $18K before expenses report to follow next meeting.
- Send Leo's thank you as there help was greatly appreciated

French Fry Stand –

- Completed four weeks all successful
- Last week had homecoming game; 23 Lion Hours and net $1170.04 Approx. $51/Lion hour

Fall Oyster/Shrimp/Ham Dinner –

- Flyers are ready and plenty were given out at Fair, many people took them as we kept them stocked on display on tables.

Armchair Horse Races –

- Lion Katie and Lion Adam will take this over and get training from Lion Chuck B. They will need lots of help

Food Bank –

- Need people to sign up, sign up poster will be at next meeting and phone calls will start. Need to fill all Friday and Saturday at Weaver's and Saturday at Redner's

LEO Advisory –

- Lion Dennis will be meeting with Leo's after Columbus day.
- Need to give Thank You Card to Leo's for outstanding help at Fair.

Community Halloween Night –

- Lion Anne to make Halloween Special
- Poster went out to Principal

Dates to Remember, Club & District:

Community Christmas Party –

- Lion Pres. Paul will be discussing with Lion Jeff on details but is in progress

Holiday Exchange Program –

- Lion Carl will be contacting EASS and let them know we need to have inputs for families needing assistance really soon so we can advertise

Trailer & Fryer Maintenance –

- Have a new Jack for French Fry Trailer but it needs to be installed
- All Trailers have been inspected
- Trailers have been cleaned and are ready to use at Fall Dinner

OLD BUSINESS

- Old Tables are going to be up for grabs for free outside Silo; we will dispose of any not taken.
- New Tables were greatly appreciated and easier to maintain during Fair.

NEW BUSINESS

- Leo's 4th leadership at USA/Canada Forum may be looking for contribution; letter is being given to Leo Leader at high school
- Lion Bruce made motion seconded by Lion Forest that we donate $250 to Makayla DeVault for dancing in Macy Thanksgiving Day Parade. We are also going to ask her if she can be available to help at the Fall Dinner and/or present a program after 1st of the year.

Oct. 2019

Regardless of your preference(s) in music, the annual Fiddlers' Picnic held on Labor Day in New Holland is a blast for anyone who appreciates talented musicians. Sometimes the "jam sessions" are better than the stage performance.

...and the New Holland LC's BBQ chicken, Hot Ham sandwiches, soup, etc. definitely add up to a very pleasurable time.
